The DIPP has also reportedly referred a complaint of the Rashtriya Swayamsevak Sangh-affiliated Swadeshi Jagran Manch on Walmart's proposed acquisition of Flipkart to the RBI, the ED, the CCI and the income tax department.

100 Jobs at Risk

JLR needs free and full access to the single market beyond the transition to remain competitive, Tata Motors CFO PB Balaji said in another statement. Tata Motors believes this would also be in the best long-term interests of the UK, he said. "As this worst-case Brexit scenario is just one of the many possibilities, our plans which were shared at the JLR analyst meet in the UK did not factor them and we continue to stand by what was shared," he said. "In the meanwhile, JLR will continue to work with the government to secure the right free trade deal for the country, economy, and industry."
